Jean Louise Synodinos

"I have these moments
All steady & strong
I'm feeling so holy & humble
The next thing I know
I'm all worried & weak
And I feel myself
Starting to crumble.

The meanings get lost
And the teachings get tossed
And you don't know what You're going to do next.
You wait for the sun
But it never quite comes
Some kind of message comes Through to you
Some kind of message
Comes through...
And it says to you...

I wanted to write a poem
That you would understand.
For what good is it to me
If you can't understand it?
But you got to try hard—

—William C. Williams

Love when you can Cry when you have to Be who you must
That's a part of the plan.
Await your arrival
With simple survival
And one day,
we'll all understand..."

~Dan Fogelberg~

"...and I said, You can shirk all things and he said, Ah can you."
—William Faulkner—

When love beckons to you, follow him...
And when his wings enfold you, yield to him...
And when he speaks to you, believe in him...
Kahlil Gibran

HIGH FLIGHT

Oh! I have slipped the surly bonds of Earth
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth
Of sun-split clouds--and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of-- wheeled and soared and swung High in the sunlit silence. Hov'ring there,
I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air....

Up, up the long delirious, burning blue
I've topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace, Where never lark, or even eagle flew--
And, while with silent mind I've trod
The high untrespassed sanctity of space,
Put out my hand and touched the face of God.

--John Gillespie Magee, Jr.

Youth, large, lusty, loving-Youth, full of grace,
force, fascination,
Do you know that Old Age may come after you,
with grace, force,
fascination?

Walt Whitman

The dynamic principle of fantasy is play, which belongs also to the child, and as such it appears to be inconsistent with the principle of serious work. But without this playing with fantasy no creative work has ever yet come to birth. The debt we owe to the play of imagination is incalculable.

I remember, I remember
The fir-trees dark and high;
I used to think their slender tops
Were close against the sky:
It was a childish ignorance,

Than when I was a boy.

St. Augustine of

Henceforth I learn, that to obey is best,
 And love with fear the only God... only add Deeds to thy knowledge answerable, add Faith,
 Add Virtue, Patience, Temperance, add Love,
 By name to come call'd Charity, the soul
 Of all the rest: then will thou not be loath
 To leave this Paradise, but shalt possess
 A paradise within thee, happier far.

The threatened cloud has passed away,
 And brightly shines the dawning day;
 What though the night may come so soon,
 We've years and years of afternoon!

We do not heed their dismal sound,
 For joy reigns everywhere around.

Then let the throng
 Our joy advance,
 With laughing song
 And merry dance,
 With joyous shout and ringing cheer,
 Inaugurate our new career!

We were talking - about the space between us all
And the people - who hide themselves behind a wall of illusion Never glimpse the truth - then it's far too late - when they pass away.
We were talking - about the love we all could share - when we find it To try our best to hold it there - with our love
With our love - we could save the world
- if they only knew.
Try to realize it's all within yourself
No-one else can make you change
And to see you're really only very small, and life flows on within and without you.
We were talking - about the love that's gone so cold and the people, who gain the world and lose their soul - they don't know - they can't see - are you one of them?
When you've seen beyond yourself - then you may find, peace of mind, is waiting there -
And the time will come when you see we're all one, and life flows on within you and without you.

All of my life I had been looking for something, and everywhere I turned someone tried to tell me what it was I accepted their answers too, though they were often in contradiction and even self-contradictory. I was naive. I was looking for myself and asking everyone except myself questions which I and only I could answer. It took me a long time and much painful boomeranging of my expectations to achieve a realization everyone else appears to have been born with:

THAT I AM NO ONE BUT MYSELF.

CATHEDRAL

Words and Music - Graham Nash

Six o'clock

In the morning, I feel pretty good
So I dropped into the luxury of the Bords
Fighting dragons and crossing swords
With the people against the hordes
Who came to conquer.

Seven o'clock

In the morning, here it comes
I taste the warning and I'm so amazed
I'm here today, seeing things so clear this way
In the car and on my way
To Stonehenge.

I'm flying in Winchester cathedral
Sunlight pouring through the break of day.
Stumbled through the door and into the chamber:
There's a lady setting flowers on a table covered lace
And a cleaner in the distance finds a cobweb on a face
And a feeling deep inside of me tells me
This can't be the place

I'm flying in Winchester cathedral,
All religion has to have its day.
Expressions on the face of the Saviour
Made me say
I can't stay

Open up the gates of the church and let me out of here!
Too many people have lied in the name of Christ
For anyone to heed the call.
So many people have died in the name of Christ
That I can't believe it all.

And now I'm standing on the grave of a soldier that died in 1799.
And the day he died it was a birthday
And I noticed it was mine
And my head didn't know just who I was
And I went spinning back in time.
And I am high upon the altar
High upon the altar, high.

I'm flying in Winchester cathedral,
It's hard enough to drink the wine,
The air inside just hangs in delusion,
But given time
I'll be fine.
